William is identified ex George's marriage to Miriam in 1858.
 The only birth / christening of a George Coulton in the Midlands (per internet IGI) is via a multiple christening of the first 4 children in this family, but father's name given as Joseph, whereas several census returns clearly indicate that George's father was actually William. N.B. Chilcote is in Staffs. IGI but in Derbys. census
 When George married, he could not write, and a witness was Frances Coulton. On the marriage certificate Miriam's father is given a profession whilst George's is not.

It is strange that the 1st 4 children are with their parents in the 1841 census, but none are at home in 1851. However we have found all the children except Thomas are with their parents in at least one census after 1851. This confirms that we have a complete family unit here. The question still remains about why the christening suggests that the father is Joseph. A possible explanation might be that William had a brother named Joseph and he could have been the children's godfather.

Some info. is sourced from Shaun Coulton's family tree on Ancestry.com He has 2 extra children in this family, Jane COULTON (1852-1853) & Sarah Jane COULTON (1856-?) but surely they would be in the 1861 and/or 1871 census !
