Robert & Mary identified ex John's death certificate and ex David McMILLAN letter to Arthur HUNTER in 1953, which also gave death dates and ages, as well as reference to McCubbington Hill Farm next to Ellisland where Burns farmed. It is said that the two families attended church together.

David McMILLAN gives Mary's maiden name as GLENCORSE, but John's death certificate gives his mothers name as GLENCROSS. Old Dunscore grave gives GLENCORSE. Ages at death for Robert & Mary led to baptisms ex 'ScotlandsPeople'. This confirmed their parents' names (N.B. Robert's mother's name not provided)

Robert McMILLAN died in 1852 aged 83 (per gravestone) and the only birth/baptism in Dumfriesshire IGI within 10 years of 1769 is the above christening in June 1771.

Mary GLENCORSE died in 1848 aged 80 (per gravestone) and the only birth/baptism in Dumfriesshire IGI within 10 years of 1768 is the above christening in May 1767. There are 3 records which refer to this event, one being the original and the other 2 being identical later entries by members of the LDS Church.

Elizabeth's estimated year of birth from Dunscore Portrack gravestone inscription. Mary JOHNSTON, granddaughter died aged 8 on this gravestone. Her parents could be Agnes & Thomas who married in Dunscore in 1831. We have a copy of the marriage entry which says that Agnes came from Dunscore, but no parents names given.
