We know of Agnes McPHERSON jnr. from her son Angus's birth record in OPR and his marriage and death certificates. We know when this Agnes died from the Neilston OPR but no age was given, and there is no record of a marriage of Agnes to George WISE/WYCE although we know that their first child (Christain) was born in Cadder in 1821. Agnes jnr. birth is one of 10 in Scotland between 1794 and 1804 and the one chosen is because Agnes and George's 2nd son was named John and 3rd daughter was named Agnes (the maternal grandparent's names).

Agnes jnr. birth is in the Glasgow OPR in 1802, and her parents names are given and father's occupation. Witnesses were John & Donald McDonald (Mother Agnes's brothers?) In the Internet IGI there are only 2 marriages of an Agnes McDonald to a John McPherson, both in Greenock. They may in fact be the same marriage with a delay between the banns and the actual ceremony. However the later marriage is in West Greenock and there is a birth c. 1747 in West Greenock to fit with this. Check Greenock OPR. From the first marriages came the approx. births which cross check with spouses names.

There are no obvious Agnes McDonald birth to tie in with c. 1755. There were 242 John McPherson births between 1740 & 1760, but none in Greenock. However there is one in Wick, Caithness (16 - 02 - 1750, father Roderick). May Laidlaw thought that someone from the Wyse/McPherson family came from Caithness.
