Further to the above we have a death record in Paisley of Angus McLarty, son of Duncan McLarty and Sarah McLarty. Angus died in 1878 aged 75, so would have been born about the same time as the above John.

We also have a death record for a Donald McLarty who lived at Silvercraigs and whose father is given as Duncan McLarty, fisherman.

For Duncan & Sarah's oldest known child Duncan to be christened in 1798 it is likely that Duncan and Sarah would have been born around 1775 to 1780, which would make them about 60 to 65 in the 1841 census. Given that ages were often rounded to the nearest 5 years in the 1841 census and that the location was Silvercraigs, the following entry is quite probably the correct Duncan McLarty.

The 1841 census record above suggests that if this is the correct Duncan McLarty, and he is living at Silvercraigs, then he probably had a son Neil around 1820 who married a May or Mary and they had a son Duncan around 1840.

The IGI record below seems to be the birth of Neil, but his mother is given as Elizabeth McTavish.
