1881 census at Chilcote : William COULTON age 70, born Chilcote with wife Jane age 71 born Markfield (implies born c. 1809).
 All other info comes from IGI searches.
 Only 1 William COULTON marriage to a Jane anywhere in England between 1822 and 1832 (when they had their 1st child). This marriage was at Barleston, Leics and was the source of the surname CRAMP.
 A search from 1805 to 1815 for all England births / christenings of a Jane CRAMP gave 3, but only 1 in the Midlands and this was at Markfield (agrees with 1881 census) This gives her parents names, and also allows a search for siblings from the same batch no.
 There were 4 marriages of a Thomas CRAMP to an Elizabeth between 1790 and 1810 in England. The other 3 were in Sussex & Kent.
 A search for birth / christening of Thomas CRAMP in Leics. between 1750 and 1790 (married in 1803), yields 6, of which 1 married a Sarah Moore and 1 died in 1776, leaving 4 possibles. Of the remaining 4, 3 would have been around 50 years old in 1803 when Thomas married Elizabeth. This leaves the Thomas CRAMP christened in 1764 at Barwell.
 There is some concern that at age 39 he was quite old when he married, so there is a possibility that the Thomas we are looking for is not in the IGI.
 A search for birth / christening of Elizabeth COLVER in England between 1750 and 1790 (married in 1803), yielded 18 of which only 3 were in the Midlands and they were all at Earl Shilton, Leics. [1766,1777 & 1780]. Cannot choose between these 3 so need to see actual marriage record in parish register to see if age is given.
