We know of James WATT and Ann ADAM from the death certificate of their daughter Mary NICOL (née WATT). We have a transcribed copy of this. James and Anne's marriage is the only James WATT to an Anne ADAM in Aberdeenshire, in the Internet IGI. James' christening is a complete guess, it being the only one in Monymusk between 1750 & 1770 according to the IGI (i.e. assuming that he was born in Monymusk and that he was not older than 32 when he was married). There is no birth in the IGI of an Ann ADAM in Monymusk. The 1st 3 children above are listed in the IGI as children of James WATT & Anne ADAM, but there is no Mary. It would appear that there might be a gap in the OPR data or maybe the IGI is incomplete, but there must be a possibility of other children between Sophia & Mary as well as after Mary. The marriages of the children are guesses from the Internet IGI, assuming that the family and their spouses were all based around Monymusk. James and Elizabeth had 10 children in Monymusk between 1810 and 1834. There is no record of any family of Peter and Elizabeth in the IGI. Sophie and Alexander MURRAY had 2 children, 1 in Monymusk in 1812 and 1 in Old Machar in 1817. Mary was in Monymusk with husband George NICOL in 1841 to 1861 censuses.
