We know Janet FULTON from her son Archibald's birth record in the Paisley IGI, and his father's name (Alexander HAMILTON) from his death certificate. The marriage of Janet FULTON to Alexander HAMILTON is in Scots ORIGINS.

On the Internet IGI there is a cross reference from Janet and Alexander's marriage to the birth of a Janet FULTON c.1770 in Paisley who was the spouse of Alexander HAMILTON. The closest proper birth in the Internet IGI was Janet FULTON born & christened in 1770 and gives her parents names. This source also gave us her siblings' births.

The marriage of William FULTON and Jean URIE is in the Internet IGI, and we also have a transcribed copy of the Paisley Low Church OPR record which gives Jean's parents as Robert URIE and Robina SMITH, stating that they were from that parish. If the above Jean URIE birth is correct, then Robert URIE had remarried before Jean's marriage and her real mother was Katherine FINLAY.

The Internet IGI gives the birth of a Jean URIE about 1740, with a father Robert URIE. This led to the birth of Jean URIE on 02–01–1741 at Low Paisley (Father Robert URIE/URE and mother Katherine FINLAYSON) and the christening on 04–01–1741 (Father Robert URIE, mother Catherine FINLAY) Is this the correct birth?

The IGI marriage of William Fulton gives a birth date c. 1736 which lead to the birth in Broom. 36 Wm Fulton births in IGI 1734 – 1738. Only 2 in 1736, 1 in Renfrewshire. Marriage for Robert Urie & Katherine Finlay ex IGI. They had John (1734), Robert (1735), James (1737), Jean (1741), William (1743), Katherine (1748), Isabel (1753) & Thomas (1756). So if Robert remarried it would be after 1756 but before 1761. There is no record in IGI of a marriage between 1750 and 1770 or of any children being born.

Information is presented in families (i.e father, mother, children)

Source documentation is provided for :-

1. Birth of each spouse
