Childrens births were all in Denby. The 7 with births & christenings were christened at Pentrich non-conformist church, Ripley.
 Most of the above was researched from the Derbyshire parish register by Gill WARRISS who communicated this to us via GenesReunited.

We know that Joseph BRIGGS married Mary RAYNS in 1792. The IGI gives 2 possible Joseph BRIGGS births in Derbyshire which could be the Joseph that we are looking for.
 The one on this sheet was born in 1772, the one on the next sheet (144A) was born in 1762. We do not know which Joseph is the correct one, although we think that this family might be correct as this Joseph would have been aged 20 when he married, as distinct to 30 in sheet 144A. As it happens, the fathers of both families were brothers, so tracing back further generations on the paternal side is not affected by which Joseph we assume is the correct one.
