All the above details come from the IGI, but none have come directly from a transcription of the OPR. All details have been provided (sometimes several times over) by members of the LDS Church.

Gill WARRISS (ex GenesReunited) seems to have confirmed all the above, including death dates, directly from the Denby and/or Pentrich OPRs in Derbyshire.

Mary BRIGGS seems to be a bit of an anomaly, in that she was christened a week before Hannah's birth. The fact that she was christened in Pentrich, where Elizabeth TURNER comes from, might have some significance. Elizabeth would have had to be heavily pregnant when she was married for her to be the mother (in marriage) of both Mary and Hannah.

Info ex Gill Warriss : Denby Parish Registers Burial of Samuel Briggs, collier and a widower of Denby Common 11th May 1817 aged 74 years. Rebecca MOOR died 1811 Denby Apprenticeship Indentures - 4th January 1765 Lidia Horsley is apprenticed to Vincent Fletcher at Denby to learn the art of housewifery until she attains the age of 21 or marries.
