In early 1982 Audrey WRIGHT (sheet 2) commissioned researcher Lewis Davenport to carry out parish register searches in Leicestershire. This was our original source. We have transcribed David GREWCOCK's marriage record in 1770 (ex Barwell parish register). It says he was aged 26 and lived at Barwell, implying birth c.1744, maybe in Barwell. The Barwell parish register also provided the christening of David in 1741, father = William, and the marriage of a William GROOCOT to Sarah PURVILE or TURVILLE in 1734. There is only 1 David GREWCOCK christening in the IGI in all England between 1734 and 1754 and this was the above David, christened in Barwell in 1741, father = William.

All details on this sheet came from Anna BURSON, via GenesReunited, in Dec 2004. She presumably got the information directly from Norman Grewcock and the IGI. Norman thinks that this family links with the Grewcocks of Broughton Astley.
