

Hume (1) family – builders

Robert Hume, 1810 – 1866, built Little Ross lighthouse in Kirkcudbright Bay in 1843, using bricks shipped from his Gatehouse brickfields. In 1849 he also built Ardnamurchan lighthouse in Argyllshire, but this latter project proved to be a strain on his financial resources. Both lighthouses were designed by Alan Stevenson, uncle of author Robert Louis Stevenson.

In the 1861 Anwoth census, Robert Hume, builder, employed 4 masons, 10 joiners, 4 plasterers, 2 labourers & 1 gas fitter, some of whom were his children.
