

GARDINER Family Tree

Compiled and researched by Fay J Gillard and Richard W Gardiner

William GARDINER (b.1720 Scotland)
 (01/04/1750 Old Kilpatrick)
Jean BROCKE (b.1726-27 Old Kilpatrick)

The 1st John and Elizabeth of this family probably died young. Mary Carson, wife of John Gardiner died during the voyage to Australia. She was buried at sea off the Cape of Good Hope.

The only evidence that John and David are siblings to this family comes from references in the 'Gardiner Letters', written by John's sons William and Alexander Murray. The link is also suggested in documents finalizing Robert's estate after his death

Robert GARDINER (b: 25/01/1763 Dumbarton d: 02/10/1818 Girthon)

Janet KIRKPATRICK (b: d: 03/05/1807 age 35)
Janet HUTCHISON (b: d: 16/05/1870 age 86 'Killeron')

John GARDINER (b: 1768-69 Scotland d: 31/01/1842 New Galloway)
 1817-18
Mary CARSON (b: 05/07/1799, Girthon d: 14/11/1851 at sea)

Shipping Records : January 1852
 Passengers listed on board the ship 'Eagle' left Liverpool, England 18th Sept. 1851 bound for Port Adelaide and Port Philip.
Mary Carson 51 yrs (widow)
Mary Gardiner 14 yrs
Jessie Gardiner 7 yrs
William Gardiner 32 yrs
Alexander M Gardiner 30 yrs
Alexander M Gardiner junior, 10 yrs
John Carson Gardiner

Louisa Gordon DOUGLAS is listed as a passenger on the 'Eagle' and came out with the GARDINERS in 1851.
(Their ages on the shipping list do not appear to be all that accurate.)

During the voyage Mary Carson died, and was buried at sea off The Cape of Good Hope. As Jessie Gardiner did not arrive in Port Philip, it has been assumed she died during the voyage also. (There was one death from Smallpox and 15 deaths from measles during the 3½ months at sea.) The remaining members of the family arrived in Port Philip, on December 24th 1851. To begin their new lives in this 'new' land 'Under Southern Skies'.
