

Alexander Peter Cliff-McCulloch

Occupation :

WW2 position : Sergeant Air Gunner, 138 Squadron, Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve.

Birth : 1916 Chelsea, London.

Death : 1st June 1944 (age 28), plane hit by nightfighter while on flying operations over North Sea and crashed Halsteren, Holland.

Buried : Bergen-op-Zoom War Cemetery, Noord-Brabant, Netherlands.

Marital status : single.

Parents : William Edward Cliff-McCulloch (cotton broker & land owner) & Eveline Mary Howie.

Address : Kirkclaugh, Gatehouse of Fleet.

Siblings : Edward Michael Werge Cliff-McCulloch (1918-1981).

Memorials : Anwoth & Girthon War Memorial.
Anwoth Church memorial plaque. Gravestone in private burial ground at Kirkclaugh & at Anwoth Church.