

The Cally Cup was played in excellent weather conditions at Gatehouse and showed off the course at its very best. Many of the competing players mentioned the high quality of the course, and the low scoring backed this up. George W. Taylor (left) from the home club was the victor and won, not only the Cally Cup, but also the Murray Usher Shield, presented to the best home player. Brian Johnson (right), the clubs' presentations convenor, is holding the shield.
