

Index of Place Names in Girthon (G) & Anwoth (A) : initial letter H

Name	P	Also known as	Earliest	Comments	Grid Reference
Hacks of Anwoth	A			The old road from Clachan of Anwoth to Skyreburn glen. Hack- according to John MacTaggart Scottish Gallovidian Encyclopedia: Hacks are rocky, mossy wild areas.	NX5756
Haffie's Field		G		Field on Low Creoch named after family who grazed their animals there. (James Murray Usher)
Halfmark	A			Mentioned as part of Rusko Estates c. 1856. (Russell)
Halfway House	Bo			On A755 (Gatehouse to Kirkcudbright road)	NX638522
Hamewith	A			House	33 Fleet Street
Hannay Street	A	Previously George Street		Named after Hannay family from Kirkdale?	Street leading from Fleet Street to Boat Green.
Hard Croft	A			Farm	NX576550
Harper's Hill Fort	G			A Celtic iron age fort on hill overlooking River Fleet and Barlay Mill. Close to the High Ford. (Russell)	NX601573
Harper's Wood	G	Fleet Farm Cottage (ex Iain Broadfoot)		House. Name of house suggested by Mrs Murray Usher. A family of tinkers called Harper used to regularly camp in the area. (Jack Nelson)	Memory Lane
Hawthorn Cottage	A			In 1851 census.
Heat Haggies				Remains of an old meander beside River Fleet. Shown on 1854 O.S. Map.	NX595581
Henderson's Shop	G			Grocers shop run by Henderson family ( ???). Later became Co-op and is now a gift shop.	High Street, opposite Town Clock.
Henry Joiners	G				6 Catherine Street
Henry's shop				Miss Henry sold alcohol c. 1850. (Russell)
Hermitage, The	G			Conversion of 3 workers cottages into one house c.2006.	Swan Street
Heugh				Celtic word for a height or cliff. (Russell)
High Ardwall	A			See Ardwall, High	NX577556
High Auchenlarie	A			See Auchenlarie, High
High Barlay Farm	G			See Barlay, High
High Creoch	G			See Creoch, High
High Creoch Burn	G			Part of the lade system. Water from Loch Whinyeon via a tunnel into the High Creoch Burn and into the lade system with water from Laghead Burn.	NX6159
High Creoch Wood	G				NX608585
High Creoch	G			Shown on 1854 O.S. Map.

Name	P	Also known as	Earliest	Comments	Grid Reference
Wood
High Flilarg	G			Shown on 1854 O.S. Map. On site of present day Laurieston Road houses.	NX605577
High Ford				Ford over River Fleet in Roman times. Close to Roman Camp near Girthon Cemetery.	NX595572
High Lodge	G			Lodge into Cally Estate from B727.	NX616552
High Point	G			Chalet	Sandgreen
High Street	G	Front Street and Main Street.		Part of A75 until Gatehouse bypass built in ?? On 1854 O.S. Map called Main Street. In 1881 census as High Street. Number 15 (dated c. 1766) is possibly the oldest property.	The principle street in the town built with shops and merchants' homes.
High Tide	G			Hut at Carrick (2003 owners map). One of the original huts in 1940's. Built from a joiners workshop from Glencaple.	NX579514
High Trees	A			House on Ramsey Wood estate.
Hill Cottage	G	Lochlyoch		See Lochlyoch	NX60566
Hill Entry				In 1881 census.
Hillcrest	A			House	Ramsey Wood
Hillhead	G			Cottage.	NX608566 On hill to eastern end of Gatehouse. Access from B??
Hillfoot	G			Modern house built in garden of Ardmore on the Cut.
Hilltop	G			Cottage near Rainton Farm	NX604523
Hinton	A			Middle English Hine's toun = the dwelling of the peasant. ( Maxwell ) In 1851 census.	NX545527
Hitler's Bridge				Bridge on Chain Road between Gatehouse and Creetown. Coffin etched on parapet
Holeburn	G	Burniehole		Now on Townhead farm. Note from Thomas Murray in 19th century
Holecroft	A				NX525527
Holmhead	A		Anwoth Banns	Skyreburn
Hollywood				Celts believed that some of their Gods lived in groves of woods at the top of hills, hence Hollywood.
Home Cottage	A			Schoolmaster lived here in 1851 census.	Skyreburn ?
Hope Cottage	G	Hopedene		See Hopedene	Woodside Terrace
Hope Dene	G	Hope Cottage		House. Called Hope Cottage in 1881 census.	Woodside Terrace
Horatio Square	G			Named after Horatio Murray Baillie from Cally House ? Built in 1782. ( Russell ) Name now includes properties in Old Posting Stables.	Consists of one Georgian House
Hornsby Hall	G	37 Catherine		37 Catherine Street – home of the Hornsby Family, brickmakers. ( Jessie

Name	P	Also known as	Earliest	Comments	Grid Reference
		Street		Fergusson)
Hungry Stone				On Calside. Possible used to mark medaeval drove road over hill
Hunter's Square	G	Deil's Elbow ?			Possibly the small square between the Brewery Brae and High Street.
Hut, The	G	J and J Twa Jeanies Linjoto		Formerly the Fisherman's house at Carrick. Original house burnt down in 1936. Rebuilt as a holiday chalet by the Sassoon family from Kirkcudbright later that year and called 'Jand J' after sons Joey & Jackie. Returned to original name by Jean Horn great great granddaughter of William Davidson the fisherman.	Carrick NX5750