

Index of Place Names in Girthon (G) & Anwoth (A) : initial letter W

Name	P	Also known as	Earliest	Comments
War Memorial	G			Unveiled in 1921. ( Russell ).	At foot of The Cut.
Waterside	A			House beside Fleet built in Garden of Victoria Cottage.	Hannay Street
Waterworks	G			Demolished in 1974. Water then piped from Glengap via Twynholm. ( Russell ).	On Laurieston road NX605581
Waterworks Bridge	G	Laurieston Road Bridge Loch Lee Bridge		See Loch Lee Bridge.	On Laurieston Road NX605581
Waulk Burn				Diverted under the Kirk Burn to feed Cally Lake. ( Russell ). Becomes Ass House Strand
Waulk Mill	G	Enrick Mill		Built c1729. A mill which cleansed material (usually wool) of impurities. ( Donnachie ). Shown as a ruin on 1854 O.S. Map. In 1881 census.	NX615539
Waulk Mill Burn	G			Burn which flows passed Enrick Waulk Mill.	NX6254
Waulk Mill Cottage
Waulkmill	A			In 1851 census. A mill which cleansed material (usually wool) of impurities. ( Donnachie ).	Skyreburn
Wee Glen	A		Anwoth Banns	Farm near head of Skyreburn Glen. Entrance of Corse of Slakes road on way to Arkland.
Wee Kirk, The	A	United Secessional Church		Now St Mary's Episcopal Church. ( Russell ).	Dromore Road
Wee Lodge	A				Cardoness A75
Wee Water of Fleet		Little Water of Fleet		See Fleet, Little Water of
Wee Water of Fleet Viaduct	G	Little Water of Fleet		Viaduct for Portpatrick railway over Wee Water of Fleet. 9 arches, 359 ft long & 51 ft high. ( I Macleod ) Now demolished	NX586670
Weir, The	G			Formerly on River Fleet upstream from the Birtwhistle Mills. One of the lades entered the river here and a sluice could direct water along a lade through Bleachfield to mills. ( Russell ).
Well	G			In Bleachfield. Shown on 1854 O. S. map.	NX599565
Well	G			Near present day bowling green. Shown on 1854 O. S. map	NX603563
Well	G			In wood at Garries Park. Shown on 1854 O. S. map	NX601563
Well Entry	G	Penny Well		See Penny Well Entry	Between numbers 36 & 38

Name	P	Also known as	Earliest	Comments
		Entry			High Street.
Wellies Rig	G			Ridge of the boggy springs. Formerly part of Culreoch Farm ( James Murray Usher ) Wallee = 'part of a quagmire in which there is a spring' ( Jamieson , Dictionary of Scottish Language 1877 )
Wendy Cottage	A	Mid Auchenlarie		Named after a member of the owner's family.
West Lodge, Cardoness	A				NX568538
West View	G			House at west end of the Birtwhistle Street terrace.	Birtwhistle Street
West Wind	G			Hut at Carrick (2003 owners map)
West Wing, Knockbrex	Bo			Part of Knockbrex House.	NX585498
Whillan East Wood	G			Chuillan (pronounced hwillan) = holly. ( Maxwell ) Shown on 1854 O.S. Map.	NX6155
Whillan Hill	G			Chuillan (pronounced hwillan) = holly. ( Maxwell ) Shown on 1854 O.S. Map.	NX6155
Whillan West Wood	G			Chuillan (pronounced hwillan) = holly. ( Maxwell ) Shown on 1854 O.S. Map.
Whimbrels	G			Hut at Carrick (2003 owners map)
Whinney Hill	G			Mentioned in James Murray's will of 1797. ( Russell )
Whins	G			Hut at Carrick (2003 owners map)
Whistle Ra'	G	Birtwhistle Street		Nickname for Birtwhistle Street. The Birtwhistle mills were called 'Roarin' Birtwhistle'.
White Bay	G			Beach area at Sandgreen	NX5752
White Chains	G			Dalavan crossroads on Cally Avenue, once marked by white chains.	NX605560
White Hill Plantation	G			Shown on 1854 O.S. Map.	NX6154
White House, The	G	8 Catherine St.		House	8 Catherine Street
Whitcrofts	G			Mentioned in James Murray's will of 1797. ( Russell )
Whitefields	G			House built by ? Patterson, road surveyor c. 1930? ( Russell ).	The Cut NX605564
Whitehill	G
Whiteside				See Glen Farm. Combined with other farms to form Glen Farm c1860 ( Russell )	Skyreburn NX554565
Whiteside Bridge	A			Bridge over Whiteside Burn at Skyreburn.	NX555559
Whitesides	A			Farm. In 1851 census as Whiteside .	NX554565

Name	P	Also known as	Earliest	Comments
Willows, The					Meadowside
Windywalls	G	Upper Drumwall		House	NX622563
Windward	G			Hut at Carrick (2003 owners map)
Wine Cellars	G			Cellars of the 2 houses at top of the Brewery Brae with flights of steps leading to the front doors. Had a problem when slope of Brewery Brae was altered in ??? ( Russell ). Confirmed by Josephine McCreath. Possible passage under road to Angel Hotel.	Brewery Brae/High Street
Woman's Land Army Hostel
Woodend	A			Cottage. Shown on 1854 O.S. Map. In 1851 census as Woodends .	NX585566
Woodend Loch	A			Sometimes called The Black Loch. Shown on 1854 O.S. Map.	NX585567
Woodend Mote	A			Probably a natural rather than man-made hill near Anwoth. ( MacLeod )	NX586567
Woodfoot Cottage	G	Castramont Lodge		In 1881 census as Woodfoot. On 1854 O.S. map as Castramont Lodge	NX591595
Woodhall
Woodhead	A	Woodhead of Ruscoe		The children of James McKean and Jean Wilson were born at Woodhead of Ruscoe between 1805 and 1817. In 1851 census.
Woodlands	G			Formerly one of the Forestry Cottages off Cally Avenue	Cally NX604555
Woodlyn	G	Girthon Manse		In 1881 census. Sold to Abbeyfield in 1977. ( Russell ). Now private house	Castramont Road
Woodside School				Girls school in the toll house at Woodside Terrace. Still operating in 1920. ( Russell )	NX602566
Woodside Terrace	G			Road between Town Clock and The Cut	NX6056
Woodside Toll House	G	Lochans Quarry Woodside Tollbar		Formerly 'new' toll house built when The Cut and the new Laurieston Road were made through the Mill Dam in 1819. It also included a town prison. Shown as Woodside in 1881 census. Also a school at one time. Latterly an architect's office. ( Russell ).	At foot of The Cut. NX602566
World's End	K	Kirkdale Bank Mote		Natural rock pinnacle, 100ft. high in a gorge below Kirkdale Bridge. Shown on 1761 map. Area landscaped in late 18 th century with paths and a summer house (the Hermitage). ( MacLeod )	NX516528